This gift will make a real difference in the lives of those less fortunate in India.

Clothing Outreach

A gift was given to provide new clothing for the poor. Many victims of leprosy, blind people, the poor, and the homeless have not received a new piece of clothing for many years, and they must continue wearing their shamefully dirty and torn clothes to cover themselves. This Christmas will bring poor people hope again and remind them about Christ's love whenever they wear their new clothes!
